

Ghanaian Community Get-together to Celebrate 60th Independence Anniversary

On Sunday, 12th March, 2017 a Get-together was organized by the Mission in conjunction with the Council of the Ghanaian Associations in Japan, at the Akos Hall in Soka City, Saitama Prefecture, which has a large concentration of Ghanaians. Leaders from the various religious denominations were invited to pray for the nation. Professor Theophilus Asamoah, Chairperson of the umbrella body of the various communities, addressed the gathering after which Pastor John Ofori, the Head of the Ghanaian Pentecost Church in Kawaguchi, gave a presentation on the theme of the 60th Anniversary: "Mobilizing for Ghana's Future".

The Head of Mission, H. E. Mr. S.J.K. Parker-Allotey delivered a speech on the Theme of the anniversary, after the cutting of cake by a section of the Home based staff and the leaders of the Community led by the Spouse of the Head of Mission, Mrs. Alice Parker-Allotey.

Below are pictures of the celebration.
