NOTIFICATION FOR SINGAPORE RESIDENTS ABOUT GHANA'S HONORARY CONSULATE-GENERAL IN SINGAPORE

Ghana's Honorary Consul-General in Singapore, Mr. Raymond LUM, who has rendered 23 years of distinguished service to Ghana and the Ghanaian Community in Singapore is relinquishing his duties for health reasons, with effect from 28th February, 2017.

Pending the appointment of his successor, this Mission will issue new guidelines for the online application of Ghana Visas to be issued directly by the Ghana Embassy in Tokyo, before 1st February, 2017. The guidelines will be available at the Website of this Mission and also that of the Honorary Consulate General of Ghana in Singapore.

To facilitate the winding up of Mr. Raymond Lum (Hon. Consul-General), his office will cease with the receiving and processing of Visas with effect from 21st February, 2017.

The Government of Ghana and this Mission hereby convey deepest appreciation to Mr. Raymond Lum for his dedicated services which will be appropriately recognized in due course by the people of Ghana.
